

FEDERAL DEFENDANTS' EXHIBIT 1
IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION TO DISMISS

Embassy of the United States of America

April 14, 2005

Ms. Rahinah Ibrahim
Lecturer, Department of Architecture
3403 Jalan 18/16, Taman Sri Serdang
Seri Kembangan
Selangor D.E., Malaysia 43300

Dear Ms. Rahinah:

This letter is to notify you that your United States F-1 student visa was revoked by the Department of State on January 31, 2005. The reason for the revocation is your possible ineligibility for a visa under Section 212(a)(3)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. As a result of the revocation, any derivative dependent F-2 visas held by members of your family are also invalidated. You and any family members holding such visas are requested to present them for physical cancellation at the U.S. Embassy in Kuala Lumpur.

The revocation of your visa does not necessarily indicate that you are ineligible to receive a U.S. visa in future. That determination can only be made at such time as you apply for a new visa. Should you choose to do so, instructions can be found on the Embassy web site at <http://malaysia.usembassy.gov>.

Sincerely,

Colwell C. Whitney

IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION TO DISMISS

United States Department of State

RE: Information pertaining to the F-1 visa revocation of Rahinah Ibrahim

I, Andrew C. Kotval, hereby declare under penalty of perjury:

1. I am employed by the U.S. Department of State as the Deputy Chief in the Coordination Division of the Visa Office, Bureau of Consular Affairs.
2. The F-1 visa held by Rahinah Ibrahim (dpob 01 Sep 1965, Malaysia) was prudentially revoked under INA section 212(a)(3)(B) on January 27, 2005. This action was taken after information came to light indicating that Ms. Ibrahim may be inadmissible to the United States and may be ineligible to receive a visa, such that she is required to reappear before a consular officer to establish her eligibility for a visa.
3. The State Department uses the Consular Lookout and Support System (CLASS) database for information on visa eligibility, and any issuance, refusal, or revocation of a visa is based on the Immigration and Nationality Act. Visa decisions are independent from and made without reference to any "No Fly" list.

I declare under the penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Washington, D.C.
