Subject: Application for Passenger Identity Verification for Rahinah Ibrahim

Dear Mr. Tiedge,

I refer to Mr. David Stone's letter of your office to Mr. Mohd Zulkephli Mohd Noor, Consul General of Malaysia in Los Angeles, dated March 3rd, 2005, which was forwarded to me on March 15th, 2005.

I am a lecturer at the Faculty of Design and Architecture, Universiti Putra Malaysia since February 1997. I was on study leave at Stanford University from September 2000 until January 2, 2005 to pursue my doctoral degree in Construction Engineering and Management.

Mr. Stone's letter refers to the incident at the San Francisco International Airport (SFO) on January 2nd, 2005, when my daughter and I wanted to board United Airline to Hawaii. I was going to present a paper at the 38th Hawaiian International Conference on System Sciences, and returning to Malaysia immediately following the conference. After waiting for more than one and a half hour at the ticket counter, I was humiliated by being arrested in front of my daughter and the public without any charge mentioned; held in the holding cell at the airport's police station for two and a half hours; subjected to culturally insensitive conduct by the arresting officers; denied access to my medications, and later released with a statement saying that it was only a detention. I was at medical risk then, still recovering from a recent hysterectomy and suffering from high blood pressure.

I was informed by Mr. Lee Korman from your South San Francisco office, that my name had been omitted via a new no-fly list #665 dated January 3rd, 2005. Yet on March 10th, 2005, I was denied boarding Cathay Pacific Flight 720 at the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA). I was returning to Stanford University to submit my final doctoral dissertation. In fact, the counter supervisor informed me that the US Embassy in Kuala Lumpur had revoked my student visa with immediate affect that morning. The officials were also unwilling to talk to me.

Mr. Tiedge, as an officer in the Malaysian Government, I do appreciate and understand the need to uphold a nation's security. As per Mr Scott's request, please find attached four certified personal information items for the purpose of obtaining a passenger identity verification (PIV) document. I hope that the documents are in order, and trust that this PIV document will help expedite and facilitate my future travels to USA.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

RAHINAH IBRAHIM
